

Hobart College — Sample Course Guide

SAMPLE / PLACEHOLDER DATA — for testing the Olinda ingestion pipeline only. Subject codes, prerequisites and descriptions below are invented for demo purposes and are not official Hobart College content. Replace with the real course guide before any real deployment.

Mathematics Methods (MTM315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Grade B or higher in Year 10 Mathematics

Description: Covers functions, calculus, and statistics. Builds the mathematical reasoning needed for STEM degrees and technical trades.

Career pathway: Engineering, computer science, physical sciences, actuarial studies.

Mathematics Applications (MTA315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of Year 10 Mathematics

Description: Focuses on practical, real-world mathematics including finance, measurement, and data analysis.

Career pathway: Business, trades, health sciences, allied health.

English Communications (ENC215120)

TASC Level: Level 2

Recommended prerequisite: None — open entry

Description: Develops everyday reading, writing, and spoken communication skills through workplace and community contexts.

Career pathway: General entry pathway into further VET study or the workforce.

English Studies (ENG315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Grade C or higher in Year 10 English

Description: Analytical study of literature, film, and persuasive texts, with a strong essay-writing focus.

Career pathway: University pathways in humanities, law, journalism, and education.

Biology (BIO315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Year 10 Science recommended, not required

Description: Explores cell biology, genetics, and ecosystems with a laboratory component each week.

Career pathway: Nursing, medicine, biomedical science, environmental science.

Chemistry (CHM315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Grade B or higher in Year 10 Science and Year 10 Mathematics

Description: Covers atomic structure, chemical reactions, and quantitative analysis, with weekly practical labs.

Career pathway: Engineering, pharmacy, medicine, materials science.

Certificate II in Community Services (VET) (CHC22015)

TASC Level: Level 2

Recommended prerequisite: None — open entry

Description: Nationally recognised vocational qualification covering foundational skills for aged care, disability, and youth support work.

Career pathway: Aged care, disability support, community services traineeships.

Certificate III in Business (VET) (BSB30120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: None — open entry, though Level 2 English is recommended

Description: Nationally recognised qualification in business administration, including workplace communication and digital tools.

Career pathway: Business administration, office support, retail management.

Outdoor Leadership (OLD215120)

TASC Level: Level 2

Recommended prerequisite: None — open entry

Description: Practical, activity-based subject covering bushwalking, camp craft, and group leadership skills.

Career pathway: Recreation, tourism, outdoor education, defence force pathways.

Psychology (PSY315120)

TASC Level: Level 3

Recommended prerequisite: Grade C or higher in Year 10 English

Description: Introduces research methods and core psychological theory, including cognition, development, and social behaviour.

Career pathway: Psychology, social work, counselling, health sciences.